THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1883.

Is it true that Von Molke has found his master in the Vatican?

WE HAVE heard nothing lately of Sluggish Sullivan. Where is that great man?

THE Democrats do not consider General George B. McClellan good presidential timber.

THE New Yorkers are employed on theories for preventing a recurrence of the late Brooklyn bridge disaster.

ABRAHAM S. HEWITT is the New York presidential talk. There is a good deal of foolish blatant about Hewitt.

THE excitement from the New York East river bridge horror still runs through our exchanges with tokens of cessation.

ONE of the very best of the Northern families is the New York Star, and we have it not among our exchanges. How is that?

It is rumored that the Apaches are driven out of Mexico by General Crook and are anxious to surrender. The bad side of it is that this rumor is such a lying jade.

"INVESTIGATE by all means," says the New York Star of the Brooklyn bridge inquest.
"But if the trustees had done their duty last week, there would be nothing to investigate." This is valuable as expounding a principle that is good for all times and all occasions.

POLITICALLY speaking, Governor Butler, of Massachusetts, facilitates himself greatly upon his good fortune in having handsomely picked up and pocketed the old commonwealth by the aid of that senile literary octogenarian, Old Harvard. It is, however, to others a painful instance of institutional decrepitude.

THE wrath of Wendell Phillips is sweeping like a mighty tornado, or like the merciless storm upon the bare head of old Lear, on the brain, body and lights of old Harvard for having vouchsafed that "Democrat's" delight, which has made all Butler men exultant throughout the State, and is daily adding to their number. Don't spare the old thing Wendell, but you want.

THERE is one great evil to most, if not all, public societies in the city, and that is clique-ism, which disseminates dissension, and, if permitted in, tends to break up a society however strong it may be, and if these dissensions are not strong, the early ruin of the infected societies may be anticipated, for a "house divided against itself cannot stand." Members should always remember that societies are not run for the benefit of individuals, but they ever so popular, but for the whole membership. Cliqueism is unjust in conduct, impolitic in action, and should, in all cases, be avoided by those who are really interested in the society they represent.

THE UNION COMPLAINT.

THE LIGHT published a "Subscriber's" complaint of the way in which some persons entered for the San Antonio Mechanics and Workmen's union festival on Sunday last.
This was one of many complaints made of a similar character, and was published in the interest of the public. It cast no reflection upon the union, but upon the caterer. Yet the union persist in taking it as a reflection upon their body, and issue a card protesting against it in the columns of a contemporary, whilst these columns were open for an explanation or defense. The LIGHT is not antagonistic to unions, and as a matter of fact is the only newspaper office in the city who only employ union men and pay the union scale of prices.
It practically believes in unions, conducted upon a proper basis, and for public advantage.
It nurtured the Workmen's union in its inception and organization, and will aid it still when it has good cause for doing so; but it will not help it when it is in the wrong nor stifle just complaints that are well grounded.
When anything has to be written on this or any other question for public good, the LIGHT will at all times state it without fear or favor.

Poker in the Army.

From the Atchafalpa Champion.

It is said that General Sherman intends to adopt stringent measures to break up gambling among the officers of the army. It is to be hoped that this is true. "Poker" is the bane of the service. It has, during the past month, brought three officers, who had won honorable renewal during the war, and were gentlemen of education and hitherto unblemished honor, to disgrace. It is a fact, too, that the older officers are largely responsible for this discreditable business. Their example lures the younger officers to play, and the end is dishonor. General Sherman has never been fond of cards or gambling. He has set an excellent example to his subordinates. But a number of prominent officers of the army, including several of national reputation occupying distinguished positions, are inveterate poker players. As a rule, these gentlemen rarely lose or win heavily. They play because they like the excitement of the game. But their example exercises a most baneful influence upon the younger officers. The General of the army can, if he will, stamp out gambling in army circles. If he does not do it, Congress should take the matter in hand.

A movement has been set on foot in Austin for the purpose of having Marshal Gossling removed from his position and an Austin man appointed to succeed him. Marshal Gossling has made a good and efficient officer and has given general satisfaction to the people, all of whom would regret much to see him removed.
But there is not much probability of that as the movement will fall through.—[Fort Clark the Rio Grande and Pecos railroad have arrived. Preparations are being made to com-water works has stopped temporarily, awaiting the machinery. Judge E. F. Hall, member of the Land Fraud board, commenced investigation in this county today.
